

2018-19 OCPA Executive Board Nominee Information

Nominee Name: Anne Bingman

Nominee Institution: The Ohio State University

Title: Housing Coordinator

Positions for Consideration: 4 Year Public Member-at-Large

Please describe your involvement with OCPA.

I have just recently joined OCPA and am looking forward to finding ways to get involved. I attended my first OCPA conference this semester and have been able to connect with several professionals through that experience.

Why are you interested in participating as a member of the OCPA Executive Board?

I am interested in serving through OCPA as a 4 Year Public Member-at-large for a few reasons. First it will allow me to contribute back to the field. I will be able to provide insight from my various experiences and support the needs of the board. I am particularly interested in helping to promote OCPA membership growth as well as professional development opportunities. I am also interested in getting involved and personally develop through my involvement.

What qualities and skills do you think you can bring to the indicated positions, and to the OCPA Board?

I am a strong communicator who is skilled in utilizing the larger context to help navigate situations and problems. I am also an efficient worker that can accomplish tasks, and can motivate others to accomplish tasks.

What do you believe to be the role of professional associations like OCPA?

I believe the two main goals for an organization like OCPA is to 1) Educate Members! This includes providing educational opportunities related to the core competencies of the profession, but also to current events and academic trends. and 2) to advance the profession in an effort to better promote student learning across the collegiate experience.
